MRS. NANCY E. CURTIS.

Mrs. Nancy E. Curtis, widow of James Curtis, who preceded her to the grave 17 years ago, died this morning at 1:45 o'clock at the home of her nephew, Almer Dodson, after a protracted illness, aged 80 years.

The funeral will occur Thursday morning at 8 o'clock from the residence, 29 East Second street, with services by Rev. F. K. Struve.

CLEAN up. The Knights are coming when no man can work.

THE Madisonville Hustler remarks:

"A pessimist," says Puck, "is a person who chews his pills." All pessimists we have ever met were fond of chewing the rag.

BETWEEN two such masters of theoretical ethics as Mr. STEAD and ELLA WHEELER WILCOX, the United States should march merrily on to the "land of somewhere"—an Elysium where poor humanity never indulges in a false step, a little sin, or a peccadello.

WHILE the Presidential fight is only in its infancy, Vice-President FAIRBANKS will, by relative temperature and climatic conditions, be conceded the vote of Alaska. If the nominating convention were to be held at the North Pole, the Indiana iceberg would have the other fellows skinned.

AMONG the new rules promulgated for the government of the lunatic asylums of Kentucky, officials and attendants are notified under pain of instant dismissal, not to strike an inmate under any circumstances. The arch-brutes of the human species are often in charge of our asylums and sanitariums.

A STRONG effort is being made to have the next Democratic National Convention held at Louisville, and the Falls City should reach out and gather in the juicy plum. The new Armory is an ideal edifice for the gathering of the great host of Democracy and the meeting would be an honor to the old Commonwealth.

THE war in Ohio between the Taft and Foraker factions is on again more fast and furious than ever. May the best man win, and his name is W. H. TAFT.

SECRETARY TAFT stands by the original declaration, made through his managers, that the contest in Ohio has so shaped itself that Senator FORAKER must be eliminated, not only as a Presidential but as a Senatorial candidate.

IT don't pay to worry. Mrs. JOHNSON, wife of TOM L. JOHNSON, the Cleveland politician and traction magnate, is in a sanitarium on account of excessive worry over her daughter ELIZABETH's separation from her husband, Signor MARIANI, whom she only recently married. TOM L. himself no doubt has enough worries in business and politics to keep him a-going without troubling over family affairs. Truly, money can't buy happiness or buy you a ticket to heaven.

ON June 1st, the last saloon in Augusta will close and the whisky traffic will be legislated out of Bracken county. But in lieu of the coming drouth a new distillery has been built at Brooksville, right in the heart of the county, and is now turning out about two barrels of whisky every day. Two barrels, about 100 gallons, is the minimum whisky consumption in Bracken county per day, and the little old stillhouse under the hill will have to work overtime in order to supply enough liquor for the one county.

A BITTER ONE.

He drew forth his check book reluctantly. "It costs more," he growled, "to get divorced than to get married." "But," said the small, ugly lawyer with the big head, "it's worth more, isn't it?" They laughed together bitterly.

I HAVE FOR SALE

JOHN MCGREGGOR.

No One Buys Drugs For Fun

No one sells them for amusement. It's a serious, important business on both sides. A drug store should have two missions: One, to furnish drugs that can be relied on; the other, to furnish them for what they are worth.

Drug stores exist for the public good. Knowledge, experience and progressive methods should mark their management. We endeavor to keep step with the progress of the age, to meet every requirement of the community, to conduct a store that shall stand for all that a drug store should.

We wish to serve those who want accurate service, high grade drugs and uniformly fair and courteous treatment.

As the result of a crap game raid at Newport a number of prominent citizens, many of whom claimed to be spectators only, were placed under arrest. The jailer was one and experienced the sensation of being a prisoner in his own institution.

RED WHISKERS WERE LACKING.

Hirsute Loss Put Mr. Betrosky in Embarrassing Position.

Just before a city election in Salem, Mass., a Russian Jew entered the savings bank. He was smooth shaven and an awful scar covered one side of his face. In broken English he announced his name as John Betrosky (which, by the way, is not his name), and signified his intention of drawing $100. His signature was identical with that on his depositing card, but under his name on the card was "red whiskers."

The cashier decided that Betrosky would have to bring some one to the bank who knew him. Muttering angrily, the Hebrew hurried out, and within 15 minutes came back with a woman and five children. In a mixture of broken English and Yiddish each one of the group tried to explain that the whiskerless Betrosky was no other than he who erstwhile wore the cardinal appendages. The cashier, after much talking, succeeded in making them understand that some one known to the bank must do the identifying.

The now tearful group withdrew to a nearby window, but their grief was short lived, for with an exclamation of joy they rushed out of doors, to come back immediately. Betrosky, armed with ex-Mayor Hurley and two little Betroskys holding his coat, it took but a minute for the ex-Mayor to explain that the whiskers were taken off at the hospital, a policeman's club having come in contact with Betrosky's face when he was in fighting condition.

As the $100 was counted the joy of the Betroskys became unbounded, and seven more people there are in Salem who believe that Hurley, to use his favorite expression, is "right on deck."

Floating Elevators.

The impetus given to the grain exportation at Odessa, Russia, has necessitated improved methods for handling this commodity, and the system inaugurated is that of floating elevators, the number of which is on the increase.

Each elevator can handle about 630 tons per day in loading foreign-bound steamships.

The charge is 25 cents per ton, about one-half the cost of the work when done by hand.

Results of Exposure.

"They say she has rheumatism of the nerves," remarked the friend. "What is that now, rheumatism of the nerves? I never heard of it." "I suppose," explained the other, "that he had so much nerve she caught cold in it."

The trial of the Hargless at Lexington for several alleged murders at Jackson, fully confirms the opinion generally formed, that Jim Hargis is the arch-villain back of the most of the assassinations in Jackson. John Smith, one of the main witnesses for the prosecution, yesterday related in detail the many plots formed by Hargis and Callahan to kill Cockrell, Dr. Cox, J. B. Marcan and the Cardwell boys at Jackson. A conviction of the two Hargless and Callahan appears certain.

EGGSACTLY SO

Little Episode at the L. and N. Depot in Which a Box of Hen Fruit Figures

Saturday Charles Bryon of the county left a paper box containing eggs in the gentlemen's waiting-room at the L. and N. Depot. He had occasion to leave the room for a few minutes and on his return the box had disappeared.

Inquiring of a colored man—who together with a white man were occupying seats in the car when he deposited the box on the seat—the whereabouts of his property, was informed that the white man took it and was at that moment in the closet in the East corner of the room.

Bryon approached and opened the door of the watercloset and as he did so the fellow on the inside struck him a blow over the head that sent him reeling to the floor. Just as the fellow was about to strike Bryon in the act of rising from his seat, and Bryon in his fall carried him to the floor, and in the scramble and melee the fellow who did the mischief darted from his hiding place and made good his escape before the two men could rise from their prostrate position.

The thief evidently thought the box contained valuables and had hid in the closet awaiting an opportune time to escape with his booty without being detected.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The State Board of Assessment of Alabama, has increased the tax value of the railroads from $58,426,072 to $73,866,575, an increase of $15,440,503. This is a result of the anti-railroad agitation.

Fogs on the river have been delaying the boats lately.

The steamer Monitor from Point Pleasant, W. Va., passed down last week. She has been thoroughly overhauled during the winter. The Monitor was formerly known as the W. H. Flint.

Work on the wreck of the John Moren to raise it from its position at the bottom of the Ohio, near Padonah, will be commenced next week, and $3,500 will be expended if necessary to recover the towboat that bears the name of the general manager of the Pittsburgh Coal Combine. The wreck will be raised between two barges, and the machinery will be taken off her, and if the hull is not damaged too badly a landing barge will be made of it.

A Catlettsburg special says: "The novel sight of a steamboat riding high and dry on a log raft was witnessed by scores of people here. There is a big timber run out of the Big Sandy river and a large fleet of log rafts broke away from the men in charge and swept out into the Ohio, carrying before it the steamer Natchez. The boat was crowded against the city wharf-boat and there stuck until the raft worked under it, when the whole mass broke loose and swept down the Ohio, the steamer being carried almost out of water. The fleet was landed about three miles below town."

Owing to excessive railway freight rates, it is said that the day of the old-time one ring wagon-train circus of thirty years ago, is soon to return and cheer the heart of young and old alike. The three-ring circus is too big (a fake) to suit the people. The genuine one ring show, with Dan Rice's speckled horse as the feature, is all we want. Bring on the one ring show.

Captain Horace January Cochran and bride, nee Miss Kathryn Poyntz, of Bowling Green, Ky., who were married in that city last Thursday, arrived in Mayville a day or two ago after a brief bridal trip, and will make their home for the summer at the residences of the groom's brothers, Judge A. M. J. Cochran and Mr. W. D. Cochran, in this city.

Captain Cochran's bride is a charming young woman, whose scores of friends and acquaintances unite in congratulations and good wishes and cordially welcome her to her future home. The gallant bachelor-Captain has chosen a life-partner whose virtues and graces will fittingly adorn his life and home.

Portsmouth Times.

The seventh birthday anniversary of little Miss Helen Dawson was celebrated with a pretty party at the spacious and elegant new home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dawson, of Jackson street. Games and music preceded a guessing contest in which a cousin of the little hostess, Miss Edna Dawson won the prize, a box of candy. At 5:30 o'clock refreshments of pink and white ices, cake and bon-bons were served. Pink and white carnations and pink candles in pretty candelabra were the artistic decorations of the table, surrounded by the following group of daintily gowned children, Katherine Hall, Alice Vincent, Ruth Redfern, Ida Faivre, Elizabeth Guler, Clara Watkins, Edna Dawson, Dorothy Eltzkorn, Helen Shafer, Mary Schriver and Helen Dawson. The guests favors were little pink and white attired dolls, standing at each place, with beautiful effect. In charge of the details of the enjoyable occasion were the sisters of Helen, Misses Lula, Katherine, Marguerite and Edna Dawson, ideal entertainers. Delighted is little Helen with the gifts presented her by the little friends who came to wish her many happy returns of the day and by her friends of ripper years.

KENTUCKY G. A. R.
In Session at Louisville—the Boys in Blue Again Gather 'Round the Camp Fire

The Grand Army Department Encampment convenes today in Louisville, and THE LEDGER hopes the following ticket will be elected:
Commander—LeVant Dodge, Berea.
Senior Vice-Commander—R. B. Hewetson, Newport.
Junior Vice-Commander—Lewis Robinson, Mt. Sterling.
Chaplain—Joseph Courtney, Louisville.
Medical Director—William Bowman, Tollesboro.
Delegates to National Encampment—C. C. Degman, Springdale; John Barr, Lebanon; J. D. Compton, Dayton, and Amos Griffith, Lexington.

The Department of Kentucky has for the past several years been in the clutches of a clique of Louisville bosses who controlled matters to suit themselves, and there is a movement now on foot to elevate the Order on a higher plane, where it rightly belongs, and in order to do so the right kind of men must be at the helm of affairs; hence THE LEDGER's choice for the above ticket, all good and true men.

PEEK-A-BOO'S
Barred By Cincinnati Judge Who Makes a Few Pertinent Remarks

Cincinnati Times-Star.
Peek-a-boo waists are tabooed so far as the Police Court is concerned. This is the order of Judge Lenders, so if any woman wants or has to go to Court she will leave her perforated waists at home. Monday a woman arrested on a charge of loitering appeared in Police Court with a latticework waist.
"That won't do here," remarked Judge Lenders, as he looked at the woman. "You cannot come to this Court unless you wear all of your clothing. I will continue this case so that you can get out of here quickly and get on a decent waist. When you come for trial do not have that kind of a waist on. If you do I will fine you to the very limit of the law."
Afterward Judge Lenders said: "I am opposed to the peek-a-boo waist. Woman's crowning glory is her modesty, and I do not think that peek-a-boo waists have any crowns on them. I will not have them come to the Police Court with such immodest clothing. I do not think that exposure of that kind is of any benefit to the health of the wearer, either."

WORKS WONDERS

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Maysville testimony proves it.

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
